20. Social and cultural activities

The warm Mediterranean Climate of Valencia is reflected in our personality. Friendly, hospitable and friendly, we turn aside for visitors to feel at home and share our passion for life. Whether you are after exploring the rich history and culture of our city Although Valencia is known worldwide for Fallas and paella, our cultural impact goes far beyond. Because Valencia are the paintings of Joaquín Sorolla, the literature of Blasco Ibáñez, the vignettes of Paco Roca and the rices of his great chefs.

The Malvarrosa District is located next to the Malvarrosa beach, which is part of a beach that covers the whole city. There are souvenir shops and beach items next to cafés and snack bars serving burgers or beachfront dishes. In the summer, some boisterous bars open up late. In The interior there are several popular Spanish restaurants among the local people. The Blasco Ibáñez House Museum offers visits to the old house and the restored gardens of the Valencian writer.

The City of Arts and Sciences is an architectural, cultural and entertainment complex of the city of Valencia. The Complex was designed by Santiago Calatrava and Félix Candela, along with engineer's author of the structural design of the roofs of L'Oceanografic Alberto Domingo and Carlos Lázaro.

So if you come to visit us thirsty for culture, you're going to be very satiated.
